

Year 4: PSHE

Lesson 3

While it is slowly becoming easier to meet people, it is sometimes difficult to feel connected with our family and friends. Now is a good time to think about who we are missing the most and appreciate these connections even more!

Staying Connected

Draw a picture of three people who are important to you and who you are missing a lot at the moment. How are you going to stay in touch with them and what will you do when you see them again?
